KEEPING IN SHAPE

Driving is one of the most complex things that people do. To do it well takes a lot of skill and judgment. When you are a new driver, it takes all the ability you have.

If anything happens to lower your physical or mental ability, you cannot drive as well. Your ability to drive is affected by:

• Drinking	• Alertness
• Drugs	• Health
• Combining Drugs and/or Alcohol	• Emotions
• Vision and Hearing

DRINKING AND DRIVING

In Kentucky intoxicating beverages (beer, whiskey, wine, etc.) are involved to some extent in some 40 percent of collisions fatal to pedestrians, about 48 percent of collisions fatal to drivers, and a factor in 72 percent of the fatal collisions in which only one car was involved. Nationally, thousands of people die each year in alcohol-related collisions. If you drink even a small amount, your chances of having a collision are greater than if you were not drinking.

WHAT IS YOUR LIMIT?

The minimum blood-alcohol concentration at which a person is presumed to be under the influence of intoxicants in the State of Kentucky is .08%. The minimum blood-alcohol for CDL drivers is .04%. The .08 level is a “per se” violation, which means that it is illegal to operate a vehicle in Kentucky with a blood-alcohol concentration at that level. Under this definition, a prosecutor does not have to prove impairment of the driver. The level for DUI for those under 21 years of age remains at .02%. Blood-alcohol concentration is determined by a Breathalyzer or other chemical tests.

“Under the influence” means that due to drinking alcoholic beverages a person has lost (to some degree) the clearness of mind and self-control that he would otherwise possess. Loss of judgment, vision, and skill may occur long before obvious symptoms of intoxication. Even one drink will affect your driving.

Experts advise that it takes your body approximately one hour to burn up one ounce of alcohol.

WHAT IF YOU HAVE TOO MUCH?

There is no way to sober up quickly. Coffee, fresh air, exercise, or cold showers will not help. Sleep will not help either, except to pass the time. Time is the only thing that will sober you up.

- I Peter 4:3-4 Drunkenness, revelries, drinking parties (banqueting, social drinking)
- Proverbs 23:29-35-describes the affect alcohol has on a person
- Proverbs 20:1 Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler, and whoever is led astray by it is not wise.
- Genesis 19:33 Lot's daughters used alcohol to have children by him.
- Galatians 5:21 drunkenness listed under works of the flesh.
- I Corinthians 6:10 drunkards listed as ones who won't inherit the kingdom
- Genesis 9:21 Noah drank of the wine and became drunk and lay uncovered in his tent.

- Say drinking is ok, only drunkenness is condemned
- Say what I do in the privacy of my own home is my own business and doesn't effect anyone. Remember Noah
- Give in to the temptation to be like everybody else and do what they do.
- Believe the lies, that's how you have a good time

- Remember we're call to be like the corn even though we're surrounded by the soybeans
- 1 Corinthians 2:13NKJ Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong.

Influence of television

- 1977 Three's Company-a show about 2 girls and a guy sharing a apartment. Guy has to act as if he's homosexual for the landlord to agree for him to live with the girls.
- 1994 Friends Six young men and women live in same apartment complex and face life and love together. They constantly stick their noses into each other's business, as well as sometimes swapping romantic partners.
- These shows and others helped normalize the idea that living with or being alone with the opposite sex was no big deal.
- I believe this has affected Christians to where they don't see a problem with it either. Causing them to make poor decisions and putting them in potentially sinful situations.

- I Thessalonians 4:2-7
- I Corinthians 6:13-20
- Ephesians 5:3
- II Timothy 2:22

Whatchanotgonado

- Think it's ok to be alone with the opposite sex, thinking nothing going to happen.
- Think it's ok to stay at your boyfriend/girlfriend's place over night
- I Thessalonians 5:22 KJV Abstain from all appearance of evil.

Remember be like corn,

Not like soybeans

An elder's observations

- Exodus 3:5 take your sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.
- When we come here to worship, do we view that we're in God's presence and do we act like it.
- Examples: how we act/behave, how we dress, how parents manage their children, what we do during worship.
